THE PSYCHOLOGY OF CYBERBULLYING

By Arlin Cuncic, MA | Part 3 of 4

WHY PEOPLE BECOME CYBERBULLIES

While some people are bullies both in real life and online, there are others who only become bullies in the digital space. Why is this the case? Why would someone bully others online when they would never do that in their everyday life? There are multiple possible explanations for this behavior.

NON-CONFRONTATIONAL & ANONYMOUS

The first reason why people may become bullies online when they would not bully in their everyday life has to do with the nature of the Internet. A person can bully others online and remain completely anonymous. Clearly, this is not possible with traditional bullying.

In addition, online bullying can be done in a non-confrontational way, particularly if it is anonymous. This means that a cyberbully may skip about the Internet leaving nasty comments and not stick around to hear the replies.

NO NEED FOR POPULARITY OR PHYSICAL DOMINANCE

In order to be a bully in real life, you typically need to have some advantage over your victim. This might mean that you are physically larger than them. It might mean that you are more popular than them. Or, it might mean that you have some sort of power imbalance over them.

In contrast, anyone can be a cyberbully. There is no need to have physical dominance or popularity. This means that people who want to bully can easily do it on the Internet regardless of their status in their real life.

NO BARRIER TO ENTRY

Similar to the concept of there being no need to be dominant or popular, there is also a very low barrier to entry to becoming a cyberbully. Anyone with access to the Internet can get started. Friends are defined loosely online, which creates a situation that makes it very easy to bully others.

NO FEEDBACK FROM VICTIM

Finally, the last reason why people who do not bully in real life may engage in cyberbullying has to do with a lack of feedback from their victims. Cyberbullies usually engage in bullying over an extended period, largely because there is generally less personal feedback from the victim and less retaliation compared to face-to-face interaction. Someone who in real life would see the impact on their victim and back off, may not do the same in the case of cyberbullying.

HOW CYBERBULLYING DIFFERS FROM IN-PERSON BULLYING

In the case of cyberbullying, the victim generally has no escape from abuse and harassment. Unlike real life encounters, online bullying and the Internet never really shut down and bullying may be unrelenting.

This can make victims feel as though they have no escape, particularly if the bullying involves sharing of their personal information or when something posted about them goes viral. This type of bullying can go on for an extended period.

EFFECTS OF CYBERBULLYING

There are numerous effects that may be seen in those who are dealing with cyberbullying. It can be helpful to know what to expect to see in a victim, as this can be one way to identify when someone is being bullied online.

Some of these effects are even stronger than what is seen with traditional bullying, as the victim often cannot escape the abusive situation. They may include:

- Feelings of distress and anxiety about the bullying
- Increased feelings of depression and mood swings
- Problems falling asleep or staying asleep (e.g., insomnia)
- Increased feelings of fearfulness
- Feelings of low self-esteem or self-worth
- Social isolation, withdrawing from friend groups, or spending a lot of time alone
- Avoiding doing things that they used to enjoy
- Increased feelings of anger, irritability, or angry outbursts
- Poor academic performance
- Problems in relationships with family members and friends
- Symptoms of post-traumatic stress
- Self-harm (e.g., cutting, hitting yourself, headbanging)
- Suicidal ideation or suicide attempt
- Substance abuse

CHARACTERISTICS OF VICTIMS

There are indeed some common aspects of the victim that tend to repeat themselves including the following characteristics:

- Teens and young adults are the most at risk.
- In the case of spreading false rumors and being the recipient of explicit images, girls are more likely to be victims.
- People who are gay, lesbian, bisexual, or transgender may be victims more often.
- Those who are shy, socially awkward, or don't fit in easily may become victims.
- People from lower-income households are more likely to be victims.
- People who use the Internet constantly are more likely to be victims of online bullies.

Anyone can become a victim of cyberbullying, even people who are considered public figures. People who have large followings on social media often tend to become targets for cyberbullies.

November 1, 2026 All Saints

On this Solemnity of All Saints, we have the profound joy of celebrating our brothers and sisters in Christ, the saints. Their lives remind us that holiness is not reserved for a select few. Through Baptism, each of us receives the call to holiness and discipleship. In other words, we are all called to become saints.

The stewardship way of life helps us answer that call in the ordinary circumstances of daily life, offering ourselves back to God with grateful hearts.

Our First Reading from Revelation gives us a glimpse of heaven: "a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people and tongue." They stand before the throne of God, praising the Lamb who has redeemed them. Their joy did not come without sacrifice. They re-mained faithful through suffering and trials, trusting in God's grace until the end.

St. John offers us great encouragement in today's Second Reading: "See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are." Already we are God's children, but an even greater joy awaits us. "We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is." That promise gives us hope and strengthens us to persevere.

In today's Gospel, Jesus proclaims the Beatitudes. These are not simply beautiful sayings or lofty ideals. They describe the heart of a disciple. The poor in spirit, the merciful, the pure of heart, the peacemakers, and those who remain faithful through persecution reveal lives transformed by God's grace.

These virtues run contrary to many of the values our culture celebrates. We cannot produce them by our own effort. They are the fruit of a life rooted in prayer, nourished by the sacraments, and shaped by an ever-deepening relationship with Christ.

As Christian stewards, we seek to grow in these virtues day by day, relying not on our own strength but on God's grace. May the witness and prayers of our brothers and sisters in Christ, the saints, encourage us as we continue our own journey toward the everlasting joy of heaven.

| The St. Peter Gift Card Fundraiser is a fundraiser that takes place year-round. The gift cards are very popular and are used with very popular stores, including a Visa Gift Card that may be used at any retail store. They are the perfect gift for every occasion: birthdays, graduation, all holiday's, personal use, or just to say 'Thank You' to someone special. Do you purchase groceries, gifts, personal items, or items for the home? It is a gift that allows the recipient to purchase what they want or need. These cards are also very safe, and you simply discard them when the total value is used. Purchasing our Gift Cards supports St. Peter. Gift Cards are sold after all the weekend masses and at the Parish Office, Mon—Fri, 9 am.—5 pm. Gift Card Denomination (s) for sale:   Safeway    50.00 &amp; 100.00 Ross        25.00 Amazon    25.00 Shell       50.00 &amp; 100.00 Chevron    50.00 &amp; 100.00   Target       25.00 Visa        50.00 &amp; 100.00 Starbucks   10.00 Union 76   100.00   |  |   Mon 2    3:00 P.M.    Chaplet of Divine Mercy Feast of All Souls 7:30 P.M.    Mass   Tue 3    8:30 A.M.    Daily Mass 3:00 P.M.    Chaplet of Divine Mercy 3:45 P.M.    Religious Education Classes 3:45 P.M.    Confirmation Class 7:00 P.M.    OCIA Class   Wed 4    3:00 P.M.    Chaplet of Divine Mercy 3:00 P.M.    Religious Education Classes 3:00 P.M.    Confirmation Class 5:30 P.M.    Evening Mass 7:00 P.M.    Confirmation Class 7:00 P.M.    Choir Rehearsal   Thu 5    3:00 P.M.    Chaplet of Divine Mercy 5:30 P.M.    Evening Mass   Fri 6    3:00 P.M.    Chaplet of Divine Mercy 5:30 P.M.    Evening Mass   Sat 7    3:00 P.M.    Chaplet of Divine Mercy 3:30 P.M.    Sacrament of Reconciliation 4:30 P.M.    Mass   Sun 8    8:30 A.M.    Mass 11:00 A.M.    Mass      |  |
